It's time to travel Europe on the most flexible way!

- ★ Simple pricing
- ★ Joining points en route
- ★ Tours can be combined
- ★ Guaranteed weekly departure
- ★ Last-minute bookings possible

We like to do coach travel a little differently. We offer exciting, tried and trusted escorted itineraries to the heart of Europe's best destinations - but with the added bonus of complete flexibility for travellers.

Want to start in Paris, but leave the tour in Amsterdam? No problem. Already in Venice, but would like to join us as we travel through northern Italy and southern France? That's simple. With multiple pick-up points along each route, you can tailor your booking to perfectly match your needs.

Coupled with our flexibility is our simple pricing structure which include transport and bed-and-breakfast accommodation. On top of that, customers are free to choose from a comprehensive selection of optional extra tours and entertainment, ranging from guided visits to the Louvre and Vatican, to dinner and a show in Paris or Amsterdam.

With our local partner's 25 years' experience as a European coach tour operator, customers can relax knowing that they are in safe hands. The two main English-language routes: Classic Northern Europe 8 Days and Picturesque Western Europe 8 Days, take in the bright lights of Paris, alpine Switzerland, historic Germany, classic northern Italy, the sophisticated south of France, and the charming Benelux countries.

Our fleet of modern, comfortable coaches and knowledgeable tour managers make getting from city to city a hugely pleasurable experience, and the accommodation en route is carefully picked to ensure a quality selection of three-star hotels, all of which provide daily continental breakfasts.

Classic Northern Europe 8 Days

Join the Red Line Tour to experience some of northern Europe's most exciting and important cities. Sample the refined airs of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, the historic German cities of Cologne, Frankfurt and Bonn, the bustling streets and canals of Amsterdam, and the key political centre of Brussels. With wonderful scenery and some compelling stops en route too, the Red Line Tour is the perfect way to get the most out of a week in this fascinating part of Europe.

Day 1 ♦ Saturday ♦ Paris 🚗 Reims 🚗 Luxembourg ♦ (B)

Enjoy a delightful scenic journey through the rolling countryside of the Champagne region, famous world over for the sparkling white wine produced. Enjoy seeing the historic attractions of provincial capital Reims, including the city's cathedral - a key national heritage site. Drive to Luxembourg, the world's only remaining Grand Duchy, you'll be introduced on foot to the main places of interest, including the Place de Constitution and Pont Adolphe, before having free time for further exploration.

Day 2 ♦ Sunday ♦ Luxembourg 🚗 Trier 🚗 Koblenz 🚗 Frankfurt ♦ (B)

Proceed to Trier, Germany's oldest city. View from the outside the house where Karl Marx the influential philosopher was born, which now called 'the Karl Marx Haus museum'. Look around the city's impressive cathedral, where the celebrated Holy Robe - said to be the tunic of Christ - is preserved and occasionally displayed. Next highlight is undoubtedly Porta Nigra. Later, drive to Koblenz, famous as the location of the confluence of the Rhine and Mosel rivers. Take an option of indulging in a relaxing lunch alongside the water, you can choose to add on a scenic Rhine boat cruise for some city vistas. Later, drive through the wine-making town of Rudesheim and see the bronze 19th century Niederwald monument. Then drive to Frankfurt am Main and discover the delights of Römerberg, a charming plaza.

Day 3 ♦ Monday ♦ Frankfurt 🚗 Bonn 🚗 Cologne 🚗 Amsterdam ♦ (B)

Drive to Bonn, the capital of the former West Germany until reunification. Discover the city's secrets on an orientation stroll through its streets, walking past highlights such as the Rococo-fronted town hall and Ludwig Van Beethoven Haus, a museum celebrating the life of the much-loved composer. Proceed to Cologne, where you'll head inside the city's glorious Gothic cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The rest of the afternoon is yours to explore Cologne, to do a spot of local shopping, or to simply relax with a suitably refreshing German brew. After lunch drive to the Netherlands.

Day 4 ♦ Tuesday ♦ Amsterdam 🚗 Zaanse Schans 🚗 Amsterdam ♦ (B)

Start with a leisurely trip at the Dutch, where you'll get to sample at close quarters some of the things that the Netherlands is traditionally famous for: clogs, cheese and windmills. Visit the hugely popular model town of Zaanse Schans (Or from mid-Mar to mid-May the tour visits Keukenhof Garden. This replaces the visit to Zaanse Schans). Then return to Amsterdam and visit a well-known diamond factory. See the unique cutting techniques that have been practised since the 16th century. Take an optional hour-long pre-dinner canal cruise, to discover more about this unique European city. You'll walk to one of the city's grandest areas, Dam Square, where the Royal Palace is located and the Queen's birthday celebrations take place. Later, enjoy the free time for shopping or further sightseeing.

Day 5 ♦ Wednesday ♦ Amsterdam 🚗 Brussels 🚗 Paris ♦ (B)

Across the border into Brussels, the Belgian capital. Stopping at the distinctive Atomium monument, a cell-shaped structure of stainless steel spheres and tubes built for the 1958 World's Fair. Visit Grand Place, as well as see the famous impish Manneken Pis statue. After some free time, during which you can try some mouth-watering Belgian delights. Then from Brussels it's south again across the French border and on to the bright lights of Paris.

Day 6 ♦ Thursday ♦ Paris 🚗 Versailles 🚗 Paris ♦ (B)

Drive along the famous Champs Élysées to the Place de la Concorde. Next, visit the iconic Arc de Triomphe, the imposing monument that sits near the western end of the avenue and commemorates the fallen of the revolution and Napoleonic wars. Next, visit the significant historical building as you head to L'Hôtel National des Invalides, where Napoleon's tomb is located. Then it's on to the most legendary of all Paris's icons: the Eiffel Tower. Choose to make the optional ascent of the tower for unbeatable views over the city or take a leisurely cruise along the river Seine, a great sightseeing option that offers views including Notre-Dame Cathedral and Pont Alexandre III. Travel to Versailles, the vast regal chateau that was the residence of the royal family until the start of the revolution in 1789. Today the palace is another popular Parisian attraction. You can enjoy an optional Paris evening shows.

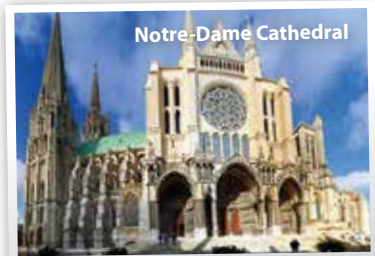

Day 7 ♦ Friday ♦ Paris ♦ (B)

Visit to the Louvre art museums. Here you'll set your eyes upon some of history's most famous masterpieces, including the Venus de Milo, Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa etc. Opt for a guided gallery tour, which will enhance your experience and allow you to browse through hundreds of works. Afterwards, relax over a lunch in the museum before heading to the area surrounding the Palais Garnier, Paris's opera house. The rest of the afternoon is yours to shop at legendary department stores Galleries Lafayette and Printemps.

Day 8 ♦ Saturday ♦ Depart Paris ♦ (B)

Passengers can opt to join the Green Line tour. This extension takes you to the heart of three wonderfully varied European countries: France, Switzerland and Italy. Otherwise you are free to leave the tour after breakfast.

We reserve the right to adjust the itinerary as we see fit to ensure the smooth running of the tour and to substitute hotels of a similar standard if the hotels listed in the brochure are not available.

Picturesque Western Europe 8 Days

The Green Line Tour takes you to the heart of three wonderfully varied European countries: France, Switzerland and Italy. We travel from Paris through breathtaking Swiss mountain scenery before heading south into Italy, where you can soak up hundreds of years of tradition and culture. Explore Venice's waterways, the cobbled streets of Verona and Florence, and the nation's capital, Rome, home to the Coliseum and Vatican City. The tour then winds its way around the glamorous French Riviera and back up through the countryside to Paris - a truly memorable journey.

Day 1 ♦ Saturday ♦ Paris 🚗 Lucerne ♦ (B)

Enjoy a scenic journey across classic French countryside en route to mountainous Switzerland. You'll pass through Basel, which is located at the point where the Swiss, French and German borders meet, before arriving at the picturesque lakeside city of Lucerne, nestled at the foot of the snowcapped Swiss Alps. Visit Lucerne's famous landmarks, including Chapel Bridge, the Water Tower, and some wonderfully preserved Baroque and Gothic architecture, followed by some free time to shop.

Day 2 ♦ Sunday ♦ Lucerne 🚗 Milan 🚗 Verona 🚗 Venice ♦ (B)

Head into northern Italy, stopping at Milan, a fashion capital of the world. Visit the city's iconic sights, including the vast Gothic cathedral (Duomo), La Scala opera house, Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II - the planet's oldest shopping mall, where you can wander among the boutique shops and take lunch in one of the refined cafes. Drive to Verona, home to some of Italy's finest architecture and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Here you'll be taken on foot through streets lined with red-roofed buildings, and walk past the ancient Roman arena, which stages outdoor opera performances and music concerts to packed audiences throughout the summer. Later, visit the residence of Verona's most famous characters: Romeo and Juliet. Find Juliet's balcony by following the trail of unanswered love letters posted on the passageway walls. Look for the bronze statue of the famous heroine here too. After some free time, you'll head to another vintage Italian city: Venice.

Day 3 ♦ Monday ♦ Venice 🚗 Rome ♦ (B)

Spend the morning in the company of a knowledgeable local guide as you explore Venice. Take a waterbus ride to San Marco Island, a memorable crossing of the lagoon that gives you a real taste of the city's charm as you approach the dreamy spires and distinctive waterside buildings. Beginning in the Piazza with the Basilica di San Marco - a stunning piece of Byzantine architecture, Bridge of Sighs, which appears on many a postcard or picture of Venice and connects the old prison to the interrogation rooms in the Doge's Palace. Afterwards visit some traditional Venetian craftwork at close quarters with a demonstration by Murano glassblowers. Later, ride through the warren of waterways on a gondola, and for most people this optional excursion is a must. If you're hungry after an action-packed morning you can choose to fill up with an optional delicious homemade Italian spaghetti meal, before enjoying more free time there. Then proceed to Rome.

Day 4 ♦ Tuesday ♦ Rome 🚗 Vatican 🚗 Florence ♦ (B)

Visit to the smallest state in the world, Vatican City, which lies at the heart of the Italian capital. Marvel at St Peter's Basilica, home to Pope Francis and arguably the most significant site in Christianity. The exquisitely beautiful Basilica has been present here for almost 1,700 years and contains a bewildering collection of paintings, frescoes and design crafted by some of humanity's most famous artists. Join an optional Sistine Chapel tour to view Michelangelo's famous painted ceiling. See the famous Trevi Fountain, where people flock to throw coins into the water and make a wish. After lunch, take a step even further back in time to visit Italy's unrivalled Roman relics. An optional guided tour of the Coliseum, built in AD 72, is highly recommended. Later, visit the Arch of Constantine, then spend some further free time enjoying Rome before transferring to Florence.

Day 5 ♦ Wednesday ♦ Florence 🚗 Pisa 🚗 Genoa ♦ (B)

Take a panoramic overview of the city from Piazzale Michelangelo, which boasts glorious vistas over the red roofs, Arno river and ancient city walls out towards the surrounding countryside. See a demonstration of the traditional craft of leather working at close quarters in a local workshop. Enjoy a guided walk around Florence's many highlights: the Ponte Vecchio over the Arno, the Piazza del Duomo and Campanile Tower. Pass the Uffizi Gallery, containing one of the most notable art collections in Florence. Then enjoy your free time to further explore the city further, before drive to Pisa. You'll free to wander, but be sure to have your camera ready to get a shot of the iconic Leaning Tower, the famous bell tower in the 'Square of Miracles'.

Day 6 ♦ Thursday ♦ Genoa 🚗 Monaco 🚗 Nice 🚗 Cannes 🚗 Avignon ♦ (B)

Drive along one of Europe's most famous stretches of Mediterranean coastline awaits as you say arrivederci to Italy and head for Monaco. You'll look out for the famous Monte-Carlo casino as you cruise into town. A walking sightseeing tour here takes you to the grand Prince's Palace, the 1920s Courthouse, the cliffside Oceanographic Museum, and the cathedral, where Grace Kelly is buried. We then travel a little further to visit the famous Fragonard Perfume Factory. Next it's Nice, where you'll stop for lunch to sample some excellent local cuisine and warm-hearted hospitality. Your journey continues to Cannes, where many a movie star has enjoyed the sweet smell of success. Visit the Palais des Festival, home to the city's annual international film festival, before transferring to Avignon Nord.

Day 7 ♦ Friday ♦ Avignon 🚗 Paris ♦ (B)

Take a well-earned rest today as you sit back and enjoy great views of the changing rural charms of the French countryside on the journey north to Paris.

Day 8 ♦ Saturday ♦ Depart Paris ♦ (B)

Passengers can opt to join the Red Line tour. This extension provides you with an opportunity to experience some of northern Europe's most exciting and important cities. Otherwise you are free to leave the tour after breakfast.

Features & Benefits

Complete flexibility

The Red and Green Line tours are both seven-day itineraries, starting every Saturday all year round from Paris, and returning to the French capital the following Friday. But the really unique selling point is that you can join or leave tours whenever it suits you. There are numerous pick-up and drop-off points along both of the routes, or you can also combine the Red and Green line tours to create a memorable 14-day European holiday.

Great value, simple pricing

While the itineraries are varied and flexible, the pricing is simple. The great-value all-in one price of AUD125 per person per day includes all transport, three-star hotel accommodation, continental breakfast, excursions to iconic locations as per the itinerary, all gratuities, and the services of a highly professional tour manager. There is also an exciting range of optional sightseeing visits and guided tours available to ensure you get maximum experience and enjoyment in every destination.

Our team of experts

Our local operators have been running tours of Europe for 25 years, and over that time have built and developed a great team of knowledgeable, friendly experts and guides. This means that not only are the itineraries carefully crafted to cover the continent's best sites, but that the tour managers are able to provide real insight and insider knowledge throughout each tour. Also, the services of excellent in-country local guides offer extra value to the major attractions.

Comfort all the way

From days spent cruising through fine European landscapes in modern air-conditioned coaches, to evenings in quality three-star hotels, your comfort is put first.

Where we travel to

The Red and Green Line tours take our guests to some of Europe's greatest destinations: France (Paris, Reims, Monte-Carlo, Nice, Cannes, Avignon); Luxembourg; Germany (Trier, Koblenz, Rudesheim, Frankfurt am Main, Bonn, Cologne); Netherlands (Amsterdam); Belgium (Brussels); Italy (Milan, Verona, Venice, Rome, Vatican City, Florence, Pisa, Genoa); and Switzerland (Lucerne).

Local experiences, international friendships

The tours offer both a local and international experience. Local guides provide a superb insight into cities such as Paris and Venice, and also show you the best places to sample some excellent regional cuisine and mingle with local people. Further, as the English-speaking tours attract people from all over the world, enjoying shared experiences together means that by the end of the tour customers have often formed lasting international friendships.
